 - b. Karate Assembly – First 2 weeks of December
 - c. Family Portraits – November 7 at Leo Carillo park from 1:30 to 4:00 pm with 20 minute intervals and $45 per family. If slots all fill up, Melinda Polino will open another day for more families. 100% of profits going to ICE PTO
 - d. Fair Trade – considering Jan/Feb; Green Raising with 45% going to school and free shipping
 - e. Blaze Pizza Night – possibly early December, still in the planning stage
5. Social Committee Report
 - a. October movie night isn't going to happen.
 - b. Parade entry is being made, waiting on theme from City of Encinitas to be announced

6. Veteran's Day
Tuesday, November 9; inviting the Mayor of Encinitas; PTO helping with refreshments and décor; Classrooms will be making little treat bags for the veterans who attend.
7. Art Committee
Second and Third grade are now covered for art classes.
8. PTO Expenses
Live Scan and TB test will not be reimbursed for the music teacher
9. Community Outreach Butterflies
 - a. Kindergarten and First grade dropping a butterfly; JCS will put out clues and whoever finds it gets to choose a Nonprofit organization for JCS to send donation.
 - b. Rady Children's Hospital butterfly garden – would they want a big wall art piece for their garden? Jim Anderson will call the hospital and talk about what the students can do.
10. Office Requests
No requests at this time.

A new PTO website will be coming soon!

Discussion about potential sixth through eighth grade – a work in progress, taking it one year at a time.
